

I am appalled at Sinclair's Broadcasting's decision to require its affiliates to run a hit piece on one of the Presidential candidates shortly before the election. If your agency has even a hint of a spine, you will take swift and decisive action to prevent this travesty from taking place. Please act now.

Thank you.